Your prayers are asked for

The repose of the soul of Mick Prichard (Eton). We offer our condolences and sincere sympathy to his family. Requiem Mass for Mick will be on Monday, November 4, at Our Lady of Sorrows at 10.30am, with cremation afterwards at Slough crematorium.

Fr. Séan Rynn and those parishioners who remain ill, including: Dorrie Keating, Maggie Auton, Michael Cadwallader, Joan and Jack Wilson, David Mendes, Yolande Solari and for those recovering from recent illness, including Jackie Cullen.

November is the Month when we remember especially our Dead. We might make a special effort to attend morning Mass during the month. In front of the Altar, there is a box into which you might like to place your intentions for those loved ones whom you especially wish to pray for.

SOME THOUGHTS ON CHRISTIAN LIVING

Zacchaeus was a small man who climbed up a sycamore tree to see Jesus. He had also climbed to the top of the financial ladder and was a wealthy man. But it is a major disappointment to have climbed to the top of the ladder only to find it was up the wrong wall. He was financially rich but he was spiritually poor. Money had not brought him the inner contentment he was looking for.

We need to remember that:

Money can buy a bed but not sleep. Money can buy food but not appetite.

Money can buy a house, but not a home. Money can buy medicine but not health.

Money can buy pleasure but not joy. Money can buy style but not beauty.

Money can buy weapons but not peace. Money can buy a beautiful grave, but not eternal life.

"Money is an article which may be used as a universal passport to everywhere except heaven, and as a universal provider of everything except happiness"
